LOCAL MATTERS.

AMARISCA's wagon train left last Thursday with a full cargo for Florence and Tucson.

CAPT. POLHAMUS came down the river alone in small boat last Wednesday.

LORD & WILLIAMS's prairie schooners, Capt. Wm. Eustis, with full cargo, sailed for Tucson last Wednesday.

LIEUT. HUTTON, 8th Infantry, left Fort Yuma last Monday with about 26 recruits, on the march for Camp Lowell.

LIEUT. LYNCH, 8th Infantry, left Fort Yuma last Saturday by the steamer Gila, for Ehrenberg, with 16 recruits for interior posts.

JULIUS SAMTER, one of our prominent merchants, left by last Monday's San Diego stage, enroute for San Bernardino and San Francisco. He will soon return.

COL. J. U. CRAWFORD, Chief Engineer and Superintendent of the California and Arizona Division of the Texas and Pacific Railroad left by stage for San Diego last Saturday. He will soon return.

THE TEXAS AND PACIFIC RAILROAD.—The work is going on, and the grading party is stretched out on both sides of the river, under charge of Mr. Reynolds, chief of construction, in the temporary absence of Col. Crawford, Chief Engineer and Superintendent.

TO THE VOTERS OF YUMA COUNTY.—As it may seem that I am rather late in my announcement as a candidate for Treasurer of Yuma County, I desire to say that it is not of my own choice, but at the earnest request of many friends that I have taken this course.

THOMAS HUGHES.

The Election.
This important event is near at hand and the most important office to be filled is that of Delegate to Congress. There can be no doubt of the triumphant re-election of HIRAM S. STEVENS, THE PEOPLE'S CHOICE, but we hope that all voters will turn out and run up a rousing majority for him, as that will nerve him for the great work that is before him. Let us make the election of HIRAM S. STEVENS as nearly unanimous as possible. Friends of Arizona, you who earnestly desire her prosperity, vote for Hiram S. Stevens.

WE regret to learn that O. P. Callaway, who left here on the San Diego stage last Saturday, met with a serious accident on the way. It is reported that when the horses became frightened and began to run, when Mr. Callaway, being alarmed, jumped out of the stage and was badly injured. The driver checked the horses and the stage was not upset. We have not learned the extent of Mr. Callaway's injuries but will doubtless hear this morning.

In the rejoicings at Prescott over the decision of Judge French that the census crime and criminals could rest assured and secure from any interference of law as dealt out in his legal hash house, one poor fellow had his hand blown off by a giant cartridge. We are sorry for him and wish he had his hand back and that every one concerned in the most shameless crime every attempted in Arizona could be set down on a ton of nitro-glycerine and blown into that hell to which they are ultimately destined. We would sing poems of praise in such event and rejoice that the body politic of Arizona was freed from the moral leprosy of their existence.—Citizen.

BORN.

Delegate to Congress.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 21, 1876.

TO THE PEOPLE OF ARIZONA TERRITORY:

Being detained here on public business much longer than I expected to have been I hereby announce myself a candidate for Re-election as Delegate to Congress.

By the people of Arizona. In so doing, I can but repeat my former platform, and with renewed energy and the advantage of what little experience I have acquired, I pledge myself (if elected) to devote my time and give my most careful attention to the advancement of the best interests of Arizona and her people, irrespective of party faction or section.

To my friends who have so generously and nobly stood by me during the past two years, I tender my heartfelt thanks.

To those who still continue to oppose me and to all opponents, I wish to say: I shall meet you in opposition on the same field in a friendly manner, and believing as I do that the majority of the people are always right, I shall feel pleased with the result.

Most respectfully inviting one and all to my support, I am

Very respectfully yours,
H. S. STEVENS.

FOR CONGRESS!

To the Editor of the Arizona Sentinel:

SIR—Please publish the following:

I desire through the columns of your paper, to say to the people of Arizona Territory, that I am a Candidate for Delegate to Congress at the election to be held in November next. If I am elected I shall earnestly devote the whole of my time to the best interests of the Territory. During the Canvass, I propose to discuss freely all matters in which the people are especially interested and which are important to the future prosperity and welfare of the Territory, and for this purpose will endeavor to meet my fellow citizens at all sections at convenient times and places.
